SAN FRANCISCO. (UP)—It may necessitate the formation of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelly to Möbile Vesetables, but it's going to be stopped.

Matthew McCurrie, secretary, or the San Francisco S. P. C. A., has laken up in all seriousness a complaint that street corner promoters are using lighted matches and eiggrettes at the south end of their Jimping beans in the quest for more speed in exhibition races between the ambulant pellets.

"It sounds like a small thing," McCurrie pointed out, "but It's a McCurrie did not explain what in comparison, constituted normal, and the street of the special comparison, constituted normal, and the second comparison constituted normal, and the second comparison constituted normal.
